JOINT STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
ORDER

Tel: 415.743.6900; Fax: 415.743.6910

On March 18, 2022, the parties filed this Joint Stipulated Protective Order. (ECF No. 33.) The stipulation largely complies with Local Rule 141.1(c), which requires that every proposed protective order contain the following provisions:

- (1) A description of the types of information eligible for protection under the order, with the description provided in general terms sufficient to reveal the nature of the information (e.g., customer list, formula for soda, diary of a troubled child);
- (2) A showing of particularized need for protection as to each category of information proposed to be covered by the order; and
- (3) A showing as to why the need for protection should be addressed by a court order, as opposed to a private agreement between or among the parties.

E.D. Cal. L.R. 141.1(c). However, when describing the types of information eligible for protection, which Local Rule 141.1(c)(1) requires, the stipulation states:

[T]he parties anticipate that, given the nature of the claims and defenses in this Action, discovery will likely include highly proprietary and sensitive business information, the disclosure of which poses a substantial risk of harm to the parties' proprietary and financial interests, including but not limited to (i) the operation and functioning of the parties' manufacturing and distribution systems; (ii) trade secret and business strategy information pertaining to the parties' product lines and marketing efforts; (iii) sensitive data regarding customers, potential customers, sales, and third-party business partners; and (iv) other proprietary technical or commercially sensitive information that is not otherwise available to the public;

(ECF No. 33 at 2) (emphasis added). This catchall language does not comply with Local Rule 141.1(c)(1). The Court has revised the protective order to exclude this language, and the types of information eligible for protection under this order shall include only those specified categories of information.

Additionally, when discussing requests to seal information produced pursuant to the protective order, the parties' stipulation states:

In the event that a Party wishes to use any Confidential Information, or any document containing or making reference to the contents of such information, in any pleading or document filed with the Court, such pleading or document shall be filed under seal pursuant to the Local Civil Rules. The Clerk of the Court is directed to maintain under seal all documents and information filed under seal with the Court in connection with this litigation, unless and until such time as the Court orders otherwise or denies permission to file under seal (ECF No. 33 at 11) (emphasis added). Local Rule 141 governs requests to seal and requires a proper showing and court order before documents may be sealed. E.D. Cal. L.R. 141(a). Specific requests to seal are required even if an existing protective order, statute, or rule requires or permits sealing. Id.

1 Thus, the Court has revised the language regarding filing documents under seal consistent with the 2 requirements of the Local Rules.

3 The Court otherwise enters the protective order proposed by the parties.

1 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED between the parties, Plaintiff
2 FOUNDATION AUTO HOLDINGS, LLC (“Foundation”) and Defendants WEBER MOTORS,
3 FRESNO, INC.; CJ’S ROAD TO LEMANS CORP.; and CHRISTOPHER JOHN WILSON
4 (“Defendants”), and Intervenor TEMPLETON MARSH, LTD., by and through their undersigned 5 counsel of record, that:

6 WHEREAS, to expedite discovery and permit discovery to proceed without the delay
7 occasioned by possible disputes regarding claims of confidentiality, the parties wish to produce
8 documents and things subject to the protective provisions set forth below;

9 WHEREAS, the parties anticipate that, given the nature of the claims and defenses in this 10 Action, discovery will likely include the following categories of highly proprietary and sensitive 11 business information, the disclosure of which poses a substantial risk of harm to the parties’
12 proprietary and financial interests: (i) the operation and functioning of the parties’ manufacturing and 13 distribution systems; (ii) trade secret and business strategy information pertaining to the parties’
14 product lines and marketing efforts; (iii) sensitive data regarding customers, potential customers,
15 sales, and third-party business partners; and (iv) other proprietary technical or commercially sensitive 16 information that is not otherwise available to the public. These categories of information shall be 17 eligible for protection under this protective order;

18 WHEREAS, the parties believe that the Terms and Conditions set forth below should be 19 entered by a court order, as opposed to a private agreement between or among the parties, because 20 the terms herein will pertain solely to the production and use of discovery in this Action, will set forth
21 procedures by which the parties can expeditiously resolve confidentiality or privilege-related disputes
22 before the Court, and will govern potential discovery from third parties who would not otherwise be 23 subject to a private agreement;

24 WHEREAS, the parties’ disclosure of information in this Action is made in reliance on the 25 provisions of this Protective Order permitting the parties and third parties to designate documents, 26 deposition and other testimony, information, and things as “CONFIDENTIAL” or 27 “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as defined below, and thereby protect such 28 designated information from unauthorized use or disclosure;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree to the Terms and Conditions set forth below, and entry by the Court of this Protective Order.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The terms and conditions of this Protective Order shall be applicable to and shall govern all information, documents and tangible things, regardless of medium or format, produced during the course of discovery in this Action, whether in response to a request, voluntarily, or pursuant to a rule, order, or other requirement (“Discovery Materials”).

2. “Confidential Information” as used herein means any information in any of the Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” by one or more of the parties to this Action or a Non-Party responding to a subpoena served in this Action (referred to as the “Designating Party”). Additional Terms and Conditions used throughout shall include but are not limited to:

a. “Information” means the content of Documents or Testimony. “Testimony” means all depositions, declarations, or other testimony taken or used in this Proceeding.

b. “Expert” means a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

c. “In-House Counsel” means attorneys who are employees of a Party or a Party’s representative to this Action. In-House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

d. “Non-Party” means any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this Action.

e. “Outside Counsel of Record” means attorneys who are not employees of a party to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action and have appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm, which has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes support staff.

f. “Party” means any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

San Francisco, CA 94111
Tel: 415.743.6900; Fax: 415.743.6910

1 g. “Professional Vendors” means persons or entities that provide litigation
2 support services (e.g., photocopying, court reporting, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 3 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their 4 employees and subcontractors.

5 h. “Protected Material” means any Disclosure or Confidential Materials that is 6 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL”.

7 i. “Receiving Party” means a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery
8 Material from a Designating Party.

9 j. “Action” means the above entitled case, Case No. 1:21-cv-00970-JLT-EPG.

10 k. “Documents” means “writings” as defined in California Evidence Code § 250, 11 and all handwritten, printed, graphic, typed, electronically recorded, sound recorded, or computer 12 readable materials, or other recorded or graphic matter of every type and description, however and 13 by whomever prepared, produced, reproduced, assimilated or made, in any form which is or was in 14 YOUR possession, custody, or control, whether the original, draft or any carbon, photographic or 15 other copy, reproduction, or facsimile thereof, including, but not limited to, any and all records, files,
16 writings, letters, minutes, correspondence, advertisements, mailgrams, telegrams, emails, bulletins,
17 instructions, resolutions, charts, literature, work assignments, reports, sales brochures, memoranda,
18 notations of telephone or personal conversations or conferences, messages, transcripts, contracts,
19 agreements, cancelled checks, interoffice communications, calendars, daytimers, diaries, logs, notes,
20 notebooks, ledgers, cards, drafts, microfilm, circulars, pamphlets, studies, notices, summaries,
21 reports, books, invoices, graphs, diagrams, photographs, data sheets, data compilations, computer
22 data sheets, computer data compilations, work sheets, records, statistics, speeches, and other writings,
23 computer tapes, audiotapes, videotapes, sound records, data compilations from which information 24 can be obtained or can be translated through detection devices into reasonably useable form, or any 25 other tangible thing. The term “Documents” shall also mean each copy which is not identical to the 26 original or to any other identified copy, including all drafts and notes (whether typed, handwritten or 27 otherwise) made or prepared in connection with such Documents, whether used or not.

3. Confidential Information shall not be used or disclosed for any purpose other than the prosecution, defense, appeal or settlement of this Action. Any use of such information for any other purpose, or any disclosure of such information to anyone not authorized under this Protective Order, is expressly prohibited and would constitute a material breach of this Order.

4. Any party to this Action, or third-party that produces Discovery Materials in this Action, may designate such material as “CONFIDENTIAL” which it believes, in good faith, contains information that, if disclosed, would cause injury to its business or business relationships with others; that contain trade secrets or other confidential and non-public research, development or commercial information; that contain non-public personal information; or that contain other information for which a good faith claim of the need for protection from disclosure can be made under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or other applicable law, including under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(c). Pursuant to Local Rule 141.1(c)(1), the Parties understand and agree that the following constitutes a description in general terms of the types of information eligible for protection under this order under the “CONFIDENTIAL” description:

a. Sensitive financial or business information that in the good faith belief of the Designating Party would harm the Designating Party if made public;

b. Trade secret information; and

c. Personally identifiable information.

5. Any party to this Action or Non-Party that produces Discovery Materials in this Action may designate such material as “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” if it believes, in good faith, that (i) the material contains or reflects confidential information that comprises highly sensitive technical, business or research information regarding products or services, and (ii) the information is so commercially sensitive that disclosure to the opposing party is likely to cause competitive harm to the Designating Party. Pursuant to Local Rule 141.1(c)(1), the parties understand and agree that the following constitutes a description in general terms of the types of information eligible for protection under this order under the “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” description:

1 a. Sensitive financial or business information, that in the good faith belief of the 2 Designating Party would harm the Designating Party if made known to the other Parties in this 3 Action; and

4 b. Trade secret information, that in the good faith belief of the Designating Party
5 would harm the Designating Party if made known to the other Parties in this Action.

6 6. The Designating Party shall not designate as Confidential Information any documents
7 or things that are known by the Designating Party to be available to members of the general public.

8 7. Hardcopy or electronic documents that any party or Non-Party wishes to designate as 9 Confidential Information in this Action shall be marked by placing the legend “CONFIDENTIAL”
10 or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as applicable on each page of the document.
11 If only a portion of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Designating Party also must 12 clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

13 8. Electronically stored information in any form (including embedded data and metadata),
14 whether oral, audio and/or visual (collectively, “Electronic Data”) that any party or Non-Party wishes
15 to designate as Confidential Information in this Action shall be marked by designating the Electronic 16 Data as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in a cover letter
17 accompanying the production of the Electronic Data. Where feasible, counsel for the Designating
18 Party shall also mark the disk, tape or other electronic media on which the Electronic Data is produced 19 with the appropriate designation. If a Party reduces “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
20 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Electronic Data to hardcopy form, it shall mark the hardcopy with the 21 appropriate designation. Whenever any Confidential Information Electronic Data is copied, all copies 22 shall be marked with the appropriate designation.

23 9. Deposition transcripts, or portions thereof, may be designated “CONFIDENTIAL”
24 “CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’
25 EYES ONLY” (a) during the deposition, in which case the designated testimony shall be identified 26 by page number in an index appearing at the end of the transcript; or (b) after the conclusion of the 27 deposition, within ten (10) days of receipt of the final deposition transcript, by written notice to 28 counsel of record for all parties. The entire deposition transcript shall be treated as

1 “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” for ten (10) days after receipt of the final
2 deposition transcript by counsel unless the Designating Party has earlier indicated a different
3 designation. The front page of any deposition containing Confidential Information shall be marked
4 by the court reporter as follows: “CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.” The 5 Designating Party shall have the right to have all persons except the deponent and his or her counsel,
6 counsel of record for the named parties, the court reporter, and such other persons as are permitted
7 under Paragraphs 10 and 11 below, excluded from a deposition, or any portion thereof, as appropriate,
8 before the taking therein of testimony that the Designating Party designates as Confidential
9 Information.

10 10. Absent written consent from the Designating Party or unless otherwise directed by the 11 Court, and subject to the provisions herein, information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not 12 be provided, shown, made available, or communicated in any way to any person or entity with the 13 exception of:

14 a. Outside attorneys for a Party receiving Discovery Materials (referred to as a 15 “Receiving Party”), and any staff, assistants, clerical employees, and information technology 16 employees working under the direct supervision of such counsel;

17 b. Officers and employees of a Receiving Party, and any person assisting such 18 officers and employees, where the review of such “CONFIDENTIAL” materials or information is 19 reasonably necessary and in connection with the prosecution, defense, appeal or settlement of this 20 Action;

21 c. The Court and its personnel in connection with the Court’s administration and 22 adjudication of this Action;

23 d. Any outside expert or consultant to whom it is necessary to disclose
24 Confidential Information for purposes of assisting in, or consulting with respect to, this litigation and 25 who have executed the Declaration of Compliance attached hereto as Exhibit A, including but not 26 limited to any mediator or settlement offer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by 27 the Parties; and

1 e. Court reporters, interpreters, translators, copy services, graphic support
2 services, document imaging services, and database/coding services retained by counsel, for the
3 purpose of assisting in this Action and who have executed the attached Declaration of Compliance.

4 11. Absent written consent from the Designating Party or unless otherwise directed by the 5 Court, and subject to the provisions herein, information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL:
6 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be provided, shown, made available, or communicated in 7 any way to any person or entity with the exception of:

8 a. Outside attorneys working on this Action for a Receiving Party, and any staff, 9 assistants, clerical employees, and information technology employees working under the direct 10 supervision of such counsel;

11 b. The Court and its staff in connection with the Court’s administration and 12 adjudication of this Action;

13 c. Any outside expert or consultant to whom it is necessary to disclose
14 Confidential Information for purposes of assisting in, or consulting with respect to, this litigation and 15 who have executed the attached Declaration of Compliance; and 16 d. Court reporters, interpreters, translators, copy services, graphic support

17 services, document imaging services, and database/coding services retained by counsel, for the 18 purpose of assisting in this Action and who have executed the attached Declaration of Compliance.

19 12. Any person receiving Confidential Information or any Discovery Materials containing 20 such information, shall take reasonable care to ensure that the information is not communicated or 21 disclosed to anyone not authorized by Paragraphs 10 and 11 above to receive such information.

22 13. Counsel for each party shall maintain a file containing the Declarations of Compliance
23 (in the form of Exhibit A) executed by each person to whom disclosure of Confidential Information
24 is made by such counsel and who is required to sign such Declaration pursuant to Paragraphs 10 and 25 11 above.

26 14. The designation of any document as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
27 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not preclude any party from showing that document to any 28 person (a) who appears as the author or as a recipient on the face of the document; (b) who has been

1 identified by the Designating Party as having been provided with the document; (c) who is a current
2 employee or representative of the Designating Party called as a witness for deposition, hearing or trial
3 in this Action; or (d) who is a former employee or representative of the Designating Party called as a
4 witness for deposition, hearing, or trial in this Action and who had access to the document at the time
5 employed by the Designating Party, if such access is apparent from the face of the document or 6 confirmed by testimony.

7 15. Nothing in this Protective Order shall affect the right of any Designating Party to 8 maintain its own documents as it chooses, or to disclose or use for any purpose the documents or 9 information produced and designated by it as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
10 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” subject to the right of a party to seek, where appropriate, removal of 11 the “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designation of such 12 documents or information as a result of such disclosure or use.

13 16. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit or affect the rights of any party to use or 14 disclose any information or thing that has not been obtained through, or derived as a result of, this 15 Action.

16 17. Compliance with this Protective Order shall not be construed in any way as an 17 admission or agreement by any party that the designated disclosure constitutes or contains any trade 18 secret or confidential information of any other party or witness. No party to this Action shall be 19 obligated to challenge the propriety of any “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
20 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designation by any other party or witness, and failure to do so shall 21 not constitute a waiver or in any way preclude a subsequent challenge in this or any other Action to 22 the propriety of such designations.

23 18. Any party objecting to the designation of any information as “CONFIDENTIAL” or 24 “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” must give counsel for the Designating Party
25 written notice of the objection and its reasons for the objection, and the parties shall attempt in good 26 faith to resolve their differences. Failing resolution, the party challenging the designation may file a 27 motion with the Court requesting that the challenged designations be changed. In any such motion, 28 the Designating Party shall bear the burden of proving that the challenged Discovery Materials were

1 appropriately designated pursuant to this Protective Order. Until the Court rules on the motion, the 2 material shall be treated as designated by the Designating Party in accordance with this Protective
3 Order.

4 19. Production of any Discovery Materials without a designation of “CONFIDENTIAL”
5 or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not in and of itself be deemed a waiver
6 of any party’s claim of confidentiality as to such matter. The initial failure to designate Discovery
7 Materials in accordance with this Protective Order shall not preclude any Party or Non-Party, at a
8 later date, from designating such materials “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
9 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” A Party or Non-Party may, by written notice to counsel of record for 10 the Receiving Party or Parties, designate previously produced Discovery Materials as Confidential
11 Information. Upon receipt of such notice, the Receiving Party shall thereafter treat the Discovery
12 Materials in accordance with the new designation, shall restrict the disclosure or use of such material
13 to those persons qualified under this Protective Order, and, if such material has previously been 14 disclosed to persons not qualified under this Protective Order, shall take reasonable steps to obtain 15 all such previously disclosed Confidential Information and advise such persons of the designation of 16 confidentiality. If the Discovery Materials were originally produced in hard-copy format, the 17 Designating Party shall supply, at its own cost, replacement pages containing the new designation of 18 confidentiality.

19 20. The inadvertent production or disclosure of any document or communication that is 20 subject to an attorney-client, attorney work product, or other privilege will not be deemed a waiver
21 of such privilege, provided that the Party entitled to assert such privilege notifies the parties to whom 22 such inadvertent disclosure or production was made promptly upon discovery of such inadvertent 23 disclosure.

24 21. Within 14 days of receiving the notice of inadvertent production, the Receiving Party
25 may move the Court for an order that such Discovery Material is not protected from disclosure by 26 any privilege, law, or doctrine and may submit the Discovery Material at issue to the Court for filing 27 under seal in connection with that motion. In any such motion, the Designating Party shall bear the 28 burden of proving that the challenged Discovery Materials are subject to an attorney-client, attorney

1 work product, or other privilege. The Receiving Party shall not assert waiver due to the inadvertent
2 production as a ground for such motion. While the motion is pending, the Receiving Party shall not 3 use or disseminate the challenged Discovery Material for any purpose other than such motion.

4 22. In the event that either (a) the Party who has been notified of an inadvertent production
5 of protected Discovery Materials declines to file a motion with the Court challenging the claim that 6 the Discovery Materials are protected from disclosure, or (b) the Court determines that the Discovery
7 Materials are protected from disclosure, then the Receiving Party shall: (i) promptly destroy the 8 Discovery Material (or redact the protected portions of the Discovery Material in the event that the 9 entire Discovery Material is not claimed or found to be protected from disclosure) and all copies
10 thereof; (ii) permanently delete any electronic versions of the Discovery Material from any data
11 source, or any database it maintains; (iii) retrieve all paper copies of the Discovery Material provided 12 to any third parties, including experts and consultants; (iv) retrieve from third parties all electronic 13 copies contained on physical storage media where practicable, or if not, direct that any such electronic 14 versions be permanently deleted; (v) destroy portions of any notes that reveal the substance of the 15 protected information; and (vi) make no further use of the protected information. In the event that 16 only a portion of the Discovery Material is claimed or found to be protected from disclosure, the Party 17 claiming protection shall produce a new version of that material with such information redacted.

18 23. In the event that a Party wishes to use any Confidential Information, or any document
19 containing or making reference to the contents of such information, in any pleading or document filed 20 with the Court, the Party shall file a request to seal such information pursuant to Local Rule 141. If 21 the Court grants the request to seal, the information shall be maintained under seal consistent with 22 Local Rule 141.

23 24. A courtesy copy of any document that is filed under seal and that is specifically
24 intended for review by the Court may be hand delivered to the Court without waiving or diminishing
25 in any way the protections of this Protective Order. Any such courtesy copy shall be prominently
26 marked "CONFIDENTIAL – FILED UNDER SEAL AND CONTAINS INFORMATION
27 SUBJECT TO A PROTECTIVE ORDER."

25. The disclosure of Confidential Information covered by this Protective Order, whether pursuant to compelled discovery or otherwise, shall not constitute a waiver of any trade secret or any intellectual property, proprietary, or other rights to or in such information. If any person or entity receiving Confidential Information is subpoenaed in another Action or proceeding, served with a document demand, or otherwise requested to provide material covered by this Protective Order, and such subpoena, document demand, or request seeks material which was produced or designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” the person receiving the subpoena, document demand, or request shall give written notice promptly (no more than five (5) business days after receipt) to counsel for the Designating Party and shall, to the extent permitted by law, withhold production of the material until any dispute relating to the production of such material is resolved.

26. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by an attorney of record for the Designating Party, within ninety days of the final adjudication (including any appellate proceedings) or other final disposition of this Action, all persons listed in Paragraphs 10 and 11 above, with the exception of Paragraphs 10(c) and 11(b), who received any materials containing information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall, at the election of the Designating Party, either (a) assemble and return all Confidential materials in its possession, including all copies thereof, to the Designating Party, or (b) certify in writing that all such material has been destroyed. If returned, the Designating Party shall acknowledge in writing the receipt of any returned material. Counsel of record shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that any experts, consultants, and outside legal vendors it has retained abide by this provision.

27. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, outside counsel for the parties shall be entitled to retain court papers, deposition and trial transcripts, attorney work product, and all exhibits to any of the foregoing that reflect or contain Confidential Information, provided that such outside counsel, and employees of such outside counsel, shall maintain the confidentiality thereof and shall not disclose any such information to any person except pursuant to Paragraph 26 or the written consent of the Designating Party.

28. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to limit, prejudice, or waive any right of any Party or person (a) to resist or compel discovery with respect to, or to seek to obtain additional or different protection for, material claimed to be protected work product or privileged under applicable law, material as to which a Party claims a legal obligation not to disclose, or material not required to be provided pursuant to applicable law; (b) to seek to modify or obtain relief from any aspect of this Protective Order; (c) to object to the use, relevance or admissibility at trial or otherwise of any material, whether or not designated in whole or in part as Confidential Information governed by this Protective Order; or (d) otherwise to require that discovery be conducted according to governing laws and rules.

29. This Protective Order shall not prevent a Party from applying to the Court for further or additional protective orders or to modify the provisions of this Protective Order.

30. The undersigned will treat Discovery Materials that are designated by a Non-Party as Confidential Information in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Protective Order regardless of whether the Non-Party is or becomes a signatory to this Protective Order.

31. Any Party serving a subpoena in this Action on a Non-Party shall include with the subpoena a copy of this Protective Order.

32. The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Protective Order, and this Court's jurisdiction over disputes relating to this Protective Order, shall survive termination of this Action and shall remain in effect unless otherwise expressly ordered by the Court.

EXHIBIT A

DECLARATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH PROTECTIVE ORDER

I, _____ hereby certify my understanding that Discovery Material designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” is being provided to me pursuant to the terms and restrictions of the Protective Order entered in this Action by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California on _____, 2022 (the “Protective Order”). I have read and understand the terms of the Protective Order and I agree to be fully bound by them. I understand that any violations of the terms and conditions of the Protective Order may be regarded as contempt of Court. I hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California for the purposes of enforcement of this Protective Order.

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this ____ day of _____, 2022.
